09:20 – 09:40 Keynote Speech Ryoze Himino, Vice Commissioner for International Affairs, Japan's Financial Services Agency

09:40 – 11:00 Clearing the World

The global financial crisis of 2008 brought profound change to the financial system: from the regulatory response to a shakeup of existing businesses and products. As the focus remains on enhancing transparency in the derivatives market – largely via clearing – how far have we journeyed in the last eight years and where must we go to fulfill the G-20 objectives?

Moderator: Nandini Sukumar, CEO, WFE

Panellists:

Michael McClain, President and Chief Operating Officer, The Options Clearing Corporation

Urs Ruegsegger, Group CEO, SIX Group

Ananda Radhakrishnan, Partner, Norton Rose Fullbright US LLP

Ryozo Himino, Vice Commissioner for International Affairs, Japan's Financial Services Agency

11:00 – 11:30 Break

11:30 – 12:30 Commodities: Are We Ready for Big Bang?

The industry is confronting a perfect storm of regulation contained in EMIR and Dodd-Frank even as issues such as capital constraints and benchmark integrity drive participants out of the market. Clearing is driving change for both exchanges and FCM's. What will commodity market structure look like in the next five years, who are the winners and losers, and what's the right regulatory response?

Moderator: Gavin Maguire, Asia Commodities Editor in Charge, Thomson Reuters

Panellists:

K. Sree Kumar, Acting CEO, Bursa Malaysia Derivatives

Priyanka Malhotra, Head of Business Development, LME Clear

Mark Bradley, Head of Compliance Asia, Mercuria Energy Trading
